SUMMER READING

You should try to read as often as possible in English during the holidays. In September, you will be asked to present ONE NOVEL you have read during the summer. You can choose any book you like, but there are many good suggestions here: schoolreadinglist.co.uk/reading-lists-for-ks3-pupils/ - look at the Year 7 and Year 8 lists for inspiration.

Students in 4<sup>e</sup>

- ONE presentation folder (porte vue) 80 sleeves
- BOOKS to purchase: (any print/paper version or edition in English is acceptable)
  - 'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens
  - 'Oxford Playscripts: Frankenstein' by Mary Shelley & Philip Pullman (ISBN: 978-0198314981)
  - 'The Wednesday Wars' by Gary D. Schmidt. (NOTE: This book is not always available online. There are many copies at school which students are welcome to borrow. If students want their own copies then please purchase one.)

Each student is expected to have read at least 1 novel during the summer! Summer reading suggestions: you may wish to consult the following site:
